

The Science Fair is Coming!

And we need you to design the logo for it!

Submit your logo design in the circle below to the office and it could be included on all the posters advertising the Science Fair this year as well as a Banner. Logos should be original, easy to read, and clearly identify the Science Fair in words or pictures. You can include the year but please do not include the month or day of the science fair.

Submissions are due: December 1, 2017 and the winner will be announced on December 5, 2017.
